 1. GED and Adult Education: A student must be at least 16 to pursue these and a parent must sign them out of regular education.
 2. SEOP: Student Education Occupation Plan. This is a meeting initiated by the counselor and every student gets an individual SOEP and group SEOP while in junior and senior high school. Parents are included. Students are introduced to a computer based program called "Utah Futures" where they can access school and career options. This program is through the USOE, so I won't go into detail here as it's not initiated by our district, but all of our secondary schools use it. It's a wonderful tool for post high and career planning as well as scholarship searches plus much, much more.

- Programs:
 1. MESA: Our secondary schools offer "MESA" which stands for Math, Engineering and Science Achievement. This is a club that anyone can join but is targeted to minority and female populations.
 2. "Girls Empowerment": A female support group
 3. Two Rivers High School: An alternative high school where a young parents program is available. Mostly females are involved; however fathers of the children can also participate. Daycare is provided while the students attend school.
 4. "Post High Day": All of our high schools participate in a program sponsored by the state's universities for all seniors.
 5. Campus Visits: This is mainly done for junior and senior students through local universities.
 6. Visits from College Representatives: The different higher education entities also set up booths during lunch at the high schools throughout the school year.
 7. Clubs and Organizations: Many clubs and organizations have speakers from different occupations talk about their careers, etc. There are no programs initiated at the district level, but the work done in the individual schools is supported and encouraged by Student Services. Students should contact their assigned guidance counselor at school for direction.
